KOLUBARA
BIODISTRICT

AN EVENT CELEBRATING THE VALUES THAT MAKE UP THE BIODISTRICT.

In the unique surroundings of
My Little Farm, this year's festival host,
experience the idea of the Biodistrict firsthand.

You'll have the opportunity to discover different aspects of sustainable production and rural life, explore local products,
and learn about traditional ways of preparing food.

Through practical demonstrations of organic and agroecological production, food preparation, tastings,
workshops, traditional games, music, and social gatherings,
the festival offers an opportunity to meet, exchange
experiences, and connect with people and organizations whose work contributes to the development of the Kolubara Biodistrict.

The festival is organized by the Kolubara Biodistrict and the National Association for Organic Production “Serbia Organica”, with the support of the German Agency for International Cooperation (GIZ) and other partners.

We look forward to welcoming you and meeting you in Ogladenovac on September 12.

*Discover new products and flavors,
take home new knowledge,
experience something new and share it with others —
and enjoy the day out!*
